

FROM BIN TO BEYOND (WASTE MANAGEMENT)

The Journey of Waste in Penang by PGC

Trash doesn't go away, it must be going somewhere. But do you know where it goes? Unravelling the story that lies behind our discarded items and paving the way towards a more sustainable and mindful future and discovering how small changes in our behavior can give a huge impact on the environment.

Is it Possible to Zero Down Food Waste? by Green Hero

Did you know that food waste is rarely highlighted by the media and that is the number one waste in Malaysia? If the number continues to rise and our landfills are getting full, where are we going to throw our rubbish next? Let's find out how to tackle food waste in the fastest and simplest way without some complex solutions.

How to Leverage on Technology to Reduce Food Waste? by Green Hero

Enjoy the engaging and thought-provoking talk about the relationship between economy and food waste. The talk emphasizes the role of technology not just as a tool for waste reduction but as a driver for sustainable economies.

The Plastic Problem by The Sea Monkey Project (SMP)

Discover the remarkable story of teenager Sydney Steenland, co-founder of the Sea Monkey Project. Explore her unique story of growing up on a boat and how it shaped her enthusiasm for addressing the pressing issue of plastic pollution.

